1. The College of Engineering requested that the wording for Core Area B be changed to broaden the definition of courses to be used to satisfy that area. There was discussion related to the General Education Requirements, the assessment of those requirements and how they related to Core Area B. After discussion, a motion was made to change the wording for Core Area B to read:

Any introductory computing and/or programming course approved by the Undergraduate Curriculum Committee (3 semester hours) plus 1 hour from Area A

The motion was seconded and defeated. 4 for, 6 against.

A motion was made that for all students graduating no later than Spring 2003; Core Area B can be satisfied with any of the following courses: CS 13x1, CS 17xx, CS 18xx, and COE 1361.

The motion was seconded and approved. Unanimous

2. Joe Hughes presented organizational issues that the committee would need to address in the next year.
