Academic Matters

1. A motion was made to approve a request from the College of Science for a new course. The motion was seconded and approved.

New Course: Approved

COS 2000: Introduction to Research

1-0-1

Note: Course was approved at the catalog level as Letter/Grade and Pass/Fail. David Collard and Cam Tyson were added as additional potential instructors for the course.

2. A motion was made to approve a request from the School of Economics for a Degree Modification and for new courses. The motion was seconded and approved.

New Courses: Approved

ECON 1001: Economics at Work

1-0-1

ECON 2250: Statistics for Economists

3-0-3

Degree Modification: Approved

Bachelor of Science in Economics

Note: The above proposals were previously tabled and now have been updated and approved. The Economics at Work course has been changed from a 2000-level to a 1000-level per the committee's request.

The key differences between the current program and the proposed new one are:

- ECON 1001 “Economics at Work” is a new course for 1 credit hour.
- ECON 2250 “Statistics for Economists” will replace MGT 2250.
- ECON majors would be required to take 12 hours of ECON electives instead of the current 9 hours.
- These changes will reduce the number of Free Electives from 20 credit hours to 16 credit hours. This is comparable to the Free Electives for other majors at Georgia Tech.

New Course: Approved

APPH 2500: Introduction to Sport Science

3-0-3

Note: Course originally proposed as Survey of Sport Science, but after further discussion the title was changed to Introduction to Sport Science.

6. A motion was made to approve a request from the School of Mathematics to edit a course description and for new courses. The motion was seconded and approved.

Course description change:

We propose a minor change in the description of Math1501, Calculus I, in the Georgia Tech catalog. New description to be updated effective Spring 2014.

The current description is:

Math 1501 - Differential calculus and basic integral calculus including the fundamental theorem of calculus and Taylor's theorem with remainder. Credit not allowed for both MATH 1501 and 1712.

We propose to delete the phrase “and Taylor's theorem with remainder” since Taylor’s Theorem is now covered in Math 1502, Calculus II, and not in Calculus I. Thus the new course description becomes:

Math 1501 - Differential calculus and basic integral calculus including the fundamental theorem of calculus. Credit not allowed for both MATH 1501 and 1712.

New Course: Approved

MATH 3771: Probability and Statistics with Applications

Note: MATH 3770 will be officially requested to be deactivated and sent to the IUCC for approval at a later meeting.

New Courses: Approved

MATH 1503: Calculus I for the Life Sciences

MATH 1504: Calculus II for the Life Sciences

Note: These new courses do not represent versions of MATH 1501 and 1502 that have had material removed. They represent versions of MATH 1501 and 1502 that have slightly different material that better addresses the needs of the life sciences. Academic units may make their own decisions about using these new courses as prereqs for their courses or as degree requirements. Units that wish to retain MATH 1501 and 1502 as their prereqs and for degree requirements need not make any changes. Those units that do wish to use these new courses should work with the Registrar's Office to prepare those proposals for the IUCC.

7. A motion was made to acknowledge a request from the Office of International Education, International Plan to add new Capstone and Country/Region courses to the IP program. The motion was acknowledged without concern.

Informational Item:

New IP Capstone and Country/Region Courses

The International Plan requires that all participants complete a culminating capstone course that integrates the international experiences into the student's major. Each participating academic unit must designate a course (or courses) to be used for the IP Capstone and seek approval from the International Plan Committee. In April 2013, the IP Committee voted to approve the following courses to serve as the Capstone courses for students majoring in Applied Languages & Intercultural Studies, Global Economics & Modern Languages, and International Affairs and Modern Languages:

CHIN 4500: Intercultural Seminar
FREN 4500: French Intercultural Capstone Seminar
GRMN 4500: Advanced Intercultural Seminar
JAPN 4500: Japanese Capstone Experience
RUSS 4500: Russian Intercultural Seminar
SPAN 4500: Intercultural Seminar in Spanish

Students should enroll in the course that correlates with their language of focus.

These courses should also be listed in the GT Catalog under the "country/region" category of the International Plan globally-focused courses. Students from outside majors (i.e. non-ALIS, non-GEML, and non-IAML majors) may choose to take these courses as their country/region course, provided they meet the course pre-requisites. These courses may NOT count as the country/region course for ALIS, GEML, and IAML students.

Note: A question was raised after the meeting as to why the titles of these seminars are worded slightly differently and whether it might make sense to have them all read the same way such as, "Chinese Intercultural Seminar", "French Intercultural Seminar", etc. The Registrar's Office will pass this question along to the School of Modern Languages.

Additional Note: The Registrar's Office reviewed this after the meeting and discovered that the names of the courses are actually the same. The confusion was generated because they were listed incorrectly in this proposal. There is one course that does not match the rest and contact is being made with Modern Languages to correct that.

8. A motion was made to approve a request from the School of Public Policy to for a minor modification and a certificate modification. The motion was seconded and approved.

Minor Modification: Approved

Law, Science, and Technology

Certificate Modification: Approved

Pre-law certificate

Core Course Options

PUBP 3000 Constitutional Issues

PUBP 3016 Judicial Process
